

Give your baby a strong start

Vaccines in pregnancy for whooping cough, flu and RSV are safe, free and recommended by NHS and other health experts.

They protect tiny lungs from serious illness.

Speak to your midwife, GP surgery or the maternity vaccination team to schedule your vaccines.